

CREATIVE PACKAGING ENHANCES YOUR BRAND

With over 20 years experience in the design and manufacturing of short run corrugated packaging products, Creative Packaging offers a vast depth of industry knowledge and expertise.

Originally two companies, Creative Packaging was born out of the merger with Q1 Packaging in 2007 and re-branded as a combined business. Now operating out of two modern facilities; a Yatala based logistics hub as well as the manufacturing base in Hillcrest, Creative Packaging offers solutions to meet your individual packaging requirements.

Products

Creative Packaging manufactures a wide range of corrugated boxes as well as a variety of other corrugated and paper specialty products.

We specialize in packaging for a variety of industry segments including Meat and Poultry, Wine and Beverage, consumer products and industrial and building products, as well as customized specialty cartons and full colour print solutions.

Whatever your requirements, Creative Packaging has the knowledge and expertise to design a product to meets your packaging needs.

Meat poultry and seafoods

Whether its a one piece, two piece, or machine erected bases and lids – our cartons provide strong, high quality construction to help ensure safe passage through the rigours of the supply chain. If you have either frozen or chilled products, Creative Packaging can supply you the right carton for your domestic and/or export requirement.

Industrial & building

Creative Packaging has a large range of products already developed in this heavy-duty market. The needs in this industry can be very different to those of consumer products and Creative Packaging have the experience and know-how to design and develop a packaging solution for you.

Wines and beverages

Prestige wine needs to be displayed and shipped with complete confidence. A vast array of cartons can be designed to suit your needs, from gift packs displaying 1,2 or 3 bottles, wine display cartons or shipper cartons, with basic or high quality prints to ensure brand awareness is at the forefront of our capabilities.

Speciality

Nothing is too difficult or impossible to package. Creative Packaging thrives on the challenge to meet your needs. We have managed to box some of the largest, most unusually shaped products there are. Many leading National companies have worked with us to find packaging solutions that no one else could.

Consumer packaging

We can develop cartons for both your inner, outer and shipper requirements, or design and deliver a display shelf ready for retail packing. These include cartons for food and drinks, hardware items, cosmetics, toiletries or household items. We offer competitive pricing across a wide range of order multiples but especially for large runs.

Full colour print solutions

Creative Packaging provide a full supply and design service for all your carton requirements. From concept through to the high-gloss litho printing and final delivery, Creative Packaging can manage this for you.

We can manage the complete packaging needs of your product so all aspects are addressed.

Services

And it is this dedication to finding a solution that is right for you that sets Creative Packaging apart from its competitors. We see ourselves as a solution provider, helping you gain cost and space efficiency to maximize your profits.

We work with you to understand your business's packaging needs and provide expert advice on everything from packaging design and materials, to printing options (both Litho and Flexographic options are available) and graphic solutions for your box.

The Creative Packaging network also includes a fleet of purpose built trucks to service the Southern QLD and Northern NSW markets directly.

Design

At Creative Packaging we understand the importance of standing out in the crowd. Our highly skilled design team uses the latest technology in design and imaging to create a custom template and sample of your box. We are also able to optimize a pallet configuration that will ensure maximum space efficiency for freight purposes.

So whether you require a basic "fit for purpose" design or a creative and innovative solution, Creative Packaging can provide you with options and answers to your packages needs.
